TESTIMONIAL FROM COACH: While Bracken wants to win, she is focused on something bigger than titles – making STUNT an NCAA sport. “Pursuing STUNT for emerging sport status is powerful,” Bracken said. “Emerging-sport status is essentially the transition between club sport and NCAA-sanctioned sport.” If STUNT becomes an NCAA sport that will allow the team to recruit with resources outside of Stillwater which would only further the success that the program has had. This big picture mindset is one that many of the STUNT coaches have for the sport. We want to elevate these female athletes to the next level.

TESTIMONIAL FROM ATHLETIC DIRECTOR: “Oklahoma State has a long history of excellence in our spirit, cheer, and STUNT programs. The prospect of having STUNT as an emerging sport provides a chance to expand on this excellence into another arena of competition that will provide additional opportunities for female athletes”.
