- Coaching: The University has a Spirit Coordinator that oversees the entire program and STUNT has a coach that is specifically assigned to STUNT. STUNT coach currently receives a salary/stipend specifically for coaching STUNT of $10,000
- Practices: STUNT practices are stand-alone practices for the STUNT team only and do not overlap with any sports
- How are STUNT athletes recruited/identified? All OBU students are eligible for STUNT team tryouts. Recruiting combines in Texas, Oklahoma, and California are all attended. Contacts and recruiting pipeline with HS coaches and senior athletes.
- Describe how STUNT athletes are fully integrated into the intercollegiate varsity sport experience at their institutions, receiving the full benefits of athletic participation.
  - Scholarships ranging from $2000-$20,000
  - All uniforms and practice clothes provided
  - All travel expenses, per diem, etc. covered
  - Practice at University-provided facility
  - All athletic training provided
  - All NCAA eligibility rules are followed by all athletes
- Eligibility for Awards: The Bison Sports Awards and the end of the year Athlete banquet and recognition is provided for all NCAA sports and their athletes. The STUNT athletes are also listed on the Athletic Director Honor Roll.
- Promotion on school athletic websites and other communications consistent with other NCAA sport athletes: STUNT is listed on athletic web site and the school SID follows and promotes all STUNT games, tournaments, and awards.
- Do/how many STUNT athletes also cheer? 16 are STUNT only athletes, the remaining STUNT team members participate in other campus activities like competitive cheer, sideline cheer, and game day
- What rules/guidance is in place to protect potential student athlete well-being and NCAA compliance concerns for athletes who do both cheer and STUNT?
  - All NCAA eligibility regulations are followed and monitored by the School compliance director and reported through CARA (Countable Athletic Related Activities)
