6 Time STUNT National Champions

2019, 2018, 2017, 2016,

2015, 2014

- Coaching:
 - STUNT coach currently receives a stipend specifically for coaching STUNT of $2000
 - The University has a Spirit Coordinator that oversees the entire program and STUNT has a coach that is specifically assigned to STUNT
- Practices: STUNT practices are stand alone practices for the STUNT team only and do not overlap with any sports
- How are STUNT athletes recruited/identified? All OSU students are eligible for STUNT team tryouts.
- Describe how STUNT athletes are fully integrated into the intercollegiate varsity sport experience at their institutions, receiving the full benefits of athletic participation.
 - All practices are held at the Gallagher-Iba Arena along with wrestling, men's basketball, and women's basketball.
 - Uniforms are provided by team.
 - Athletic department hired staffing of Head coach and assistant coach
 - Post season banquet
 - Inclusion in awards and recognitions consistent with other NCAA sport athletes
 - Opportunities for athletic scholarships are not currently available; however, will be provided upon emerging sports status. Many students receive academic scholarship from the University.
 - Promotion on school athletic websites and other communications consistent with other NCAA sport athletes: letters of commendation from Oklahoma senators, recognition at the State Capital of Oklahoma, press releases, and web page
- Do/how many STUNT athletes also cheer? 3 members on athletic game day, 25 on a competition club program, and 7 students that are STUNT only athletes
- What rules/guidance is in place to protect potential student athlete well-being and NCAA compliance concerns for athletes who do both cheer and STUNT?
 - A typical week is 3 skills practices and 2 strength workouts – totaling 8 hours a week
 - Occasionally, additional practices can be added but do not exceed 12 hours during a 1-week period
 - Allowances are made for tournament weekends and regular games
 - All are monitored by spirit coordinator through pre-set practice schedules
